

CAP New Matrix – Focus area: Violence Prevention and Child Protection 2012–16–18 Children on the Move

Impact	Children on the move access their rights
Goal	Their rights are recognized
Approaches	To make existing systems accessible for Children on the Move and protect them from abuse
Activities	Engage children in shaping the local, national, regional and international activities of partners	Identify and use examples of safer movement of children	Provide access to minimal standard services (protection, education, health) and strengthen referral mechanisms	Advocate for programmes and policies that respect and respond to the rights of children	Position children on the move in relevant international debates
Outcomes	The rights and needs of children on the move are recognised and responded to by the public, CSOs and governments There are improved services for children on the move leading to increased safety as they move
Indicators	# of initiatives shaped with children's participation available in priority countries	Examples of safer movement are identified and disseminated	# and types of services accessible to CoM	# of key government and non-state actors allies present Debate on safer movement of children is stimulated	